

Scholar Meal Options

Name: _____

Perhaps you're a picky eater, perhaps you're not. Our goal is to make sure we feed you enough of the stuff you like while you're in Tucson for the Orientation. Maybe you don't eat red meat. Maybe you don't eat meat period. Maybe you eat chicken, but only free-range. Maybe you don't eat anything that has in any way come from an animal. And maybe, just maybe, you hate peppers, and butter, and anything yellow.

Whatever your thing is, we'll do our best to accommodate you. (But, listen, if you're really that picky and know you're that picky, you should probably bring a stash of your own food.)

That said, let us know what you eat and what you don't. The "meat" options for the weekend will be chicken, turkey, or fish. I can't guarantee free-range, organic chicken, but the Westward Look does have its own garden, and grows a lot of what it uses onsite. That's cool, right?
